FLOODSHED AT SOMESTEAD

The trouble at the Carnegie Works at , Sinate Homestead has reached that condition which was feared and yet which it was honed would be avoided. At 4 3) o'clock Tal $8..... No. 11,278 this morning an attempt on the part of the proprietors of the works to introduce a force of armed Pinkerton men into the milis led to a conflict with the locked-out workmen, in which blood was shed and Yesterday, by request of Supt. Faice, the High Sheriff of the county, with a posse of deputies, visited the place. They were surrounded by a strong body of the well-organized workmen and quietly but firmly informed that they must leave the town and would not be allowed to enter the works. They were powerless to offer any opposition and took their departure.

This action of the workmen was, of course, in violation of the law. But they offered no violence to the Sheriff's party As exceptions will be made to this rule with The Sheriff issued a proclamation before regard to either letters or inclosures. Nor he left, warning the people against as will the editor enter two correspondence corsembling in bodies or interfering with persons engaged in the works. Thereupon the Advisory Committee of the workmen dissolved, burning its records and informing the Sheriff that thence. forth the men would be without leaders or advisers and each individual would be responsible for his own acts.

At daylight this morning, according to erton detectives arrived in a steamer at the landing. They were fired upon immediately by the workmen and their landing was prevented. It is reported that they did not effect a landing and that seven of the Pinkerton army and five wounded.
